The Commission dealt with 551 cases (including 173 cases pending as on 1st April 1985) during the year under report (as against 623 cases in 1984-85 including 269 cases pending as on 1st April 1984). Of the 551 cases, the Commission called for the records or particulars in respect of 44 cases and the Commission's advice was communicated to the Government in respect of 454 cases, leaving a balance of 97 cases which includes 49 cases where the Commission could not render its advice within six months. Of the 454 cases, the Commission advised modification of punishments in respect of 39 cases. In respect of 27 out of 97 cases, records or particulars are still awaited.

2. Of the 454 cases on which the Commission's views were communumicated, the Government had passed orders on 183 cases, leaving a balance of 271 cases.

4. Disciplinary cases have necessarily to be considered with great care and, therefore, considerable time is required for examining all the records and reaching a conclusion on the charges and the penalties if any, to be imposed. The Commission has taken steps to see that no avoidable delay occurs in dealing with the cases. Details of number of the cases involving charges affecting integrity and number of the cases involving charges other than integrity according to departments in respect of Appeal /Petition/Review Petition/Disciplinary action/Proposal for recovery/or Reduction in pension are furnished in Appendix (E).

5. The Commission also advised on three references for legal assistance.

SECTION XII.

GOVERNMENT AND THE COMMISSION.

(A) Instances of Deviation from the Commission's Advice.

1. In August 1982, the Government in the Public Works Department sought the Commission's concurrence under the latter part of Regulation 16(b) of the Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission Regulations, 1954, for the regular appointment of a candidate who was continuously in temporary employment under General Rule 10(a) (i) as Junior Assistant from 12th October 1965 in the Civil Supplies Department and from July 1971 in the Public Works Department. She had appeared for the Commission's Competitive Examination once in 1969 but was not successful in that examination. The Government stated that they were prepared to relax the age rule in her favour if she was otherwise found suitable for regular appointment as Junior Assistant as she had attained the age of 50 years (too old to write the examination).

But the candidate, though claimed to be in temporary service as Junior Assistant from 1965 onwards, had not cared to apply for either of the Special Qualifying Examinations held in 1977 and 1980 solely for regularising the services of the temporary Junior Assistants and Typists under the State Government. Therefore, the Commission refused to accord its concurrence for regular appointment of the individual as Junior Assistant. The Government accepted those views of the Commission and informed the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department (General) on 6th December 1982 that the candidate's request had not been accepted by the Government. However, on 10th June 1985, the Government issued orders relaxing the age rule in the candidate's favour so as to enable her to be regularly appointed as Junior Assistant in the Public Works Department with effect from 28th July 1971 and also excluded that appointment from the Commission's purview.

The Commission was not apprised of the candidate's further representation after the Government turned down her initial petition; but straightway issued orders, disregarding the Commission's view, without making any reference to the earlier refusal of the request in the order issued on 10th June 1985 thus putting a seal of approval on the candidate's complete indifference all these years to show any intention to get a regular appointment.

2. In October 1980, the Government in the Agriculture Department sought the Commission's views on their proposal to recover a sum of Rs. 886/- from the pay of one Assistant Agricultural Engineer, towards the loss caused to the Government, due to the failure of the open well construction under his supervision. The Commission advised the Government to impose the proposed punishment of recovery on the delinquent. But the Government issued orders deviating from the Commission's views and letting the delinquent off with a warning. Orders were also issued by the Government suo motu waiving the recovery already imposed on another Assistant Executive Engineer, by the Director of Agriculture.

Since the Commission was not apprised of the compelling reasons for deviating from its advice and as no matter of policy was also involved for the Government to deviate from the Commission's advice, the Government were informed of the Commission's decision to review the instant deviation in the Commission's Annual Report and they were also requested to state the circumstances under which the Commission was not consulted before orders were issued waiving the recovery from another Assistant Executive Engineer, in modification of the penalty of recovery imposed on him by the Director of Agriculture. In reply the Government in the Agriculture Department stated that the opinion received from the Commission was only advisory and that it was within the discretion of the Government to accept the advice or not. They also stated that, if it was proposed to reject or to deviate from the advice of the Commission on grounds which were not before it, when it made its recommendation, the Commission would, if possible, be given a reasonable opportunity of considering those grounds and making a fresh recommendation before orders were passed and that their decision was to drop the proposal of recovering the loss from the individual and letting him off with a warning and hence the Commission was not consulted again before issuing final orders. They further stated that, consequent on the Government's decision to drop proceedings against the delinquent, the recovery ordered by the Director of Agriculture from the Assistant Executive Engineer a co-accused officer, was also cancelled by the Government and that the orders were cancelled suo motu, though the co-accused officer had not appealed against that order. The Commission brought the fact to the notice of the Chief Secretary to Government, Personnel and Administrative Reforms Department, along with a copy of the Government Agriculture Department's letter and requested him to ensure that an uniform procedure was followed by the Government in the various departments in the matter of acceptance of the Commission's advice.

The Government in the Personnel and Administrative Reforms (Personnel-N) Department have now stated that, eventhough Article 320 of the Constitution of India contemplates that the Government should seek advice of the Commission and give it due consideration before taking a final decision, it cannot be said that the Government are necessarily bound by the advice of the Commission in each and every case and should act mechanically upon such advice without applying their mind to the matter in question. They have further stated that, if the Government accept the views of the Commission in all the cases blindly, the orders would be vitiated malafide.

The Government stated that in the case of Assistant Executive Engineer, they, on review, decided only to take a lenient view and to cancel the recovery ordered by the Director of Agriculture along with the case of Assistant Agricultural Engineer in which the Commission was already consulted. They added that, eventhough Regulation 18(1) (a) of the Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission Regualtions, 1954 provided for consultation with the Commission where the State Government proposed to pass an order on review, Rule 36(1) of the Tamil Nadu Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules provided for consultation with the Commission in case of review of any order made under the said Rule, where such consultation was necessary. The Government, further added that it had been held by the Supreme Court that the expression "shall be consulted" occuring in Article 320 (3) of the Constitution was not to be construed in the sense that, in default of consultation, the action of Government under any of the sub-clause (3) of Article 320 would be null and void. In support of their statements, the Government quoted AIR 1966 Orissa 173 (183), AIR 1964 Cal. 253, AIR 1957 (SC 922) and AIR 1970 and S.C. 158 (160).

The judgements referred to by the Government indicated that failure to consult the Commission did not afford the Government servant a cause of action and that the provisions of Article 320 (3) (c) were not mandatory and did not confer any rights on the public servant.

The Commission desires to express itself that the act of making provisions in the Constitution and in the Regulations for consulting the Commission which is a statutory body constituted for the specific purpose, becomes meaningless if these provisions are not to be followed by the authorities concerned.

3. In October 1982, the Government sought for the Commission's Concurrence for the regularisation of the temporary services of three persons in the post of Mass Education and Information Officers in the Tamil Nadu Public Health Service for the reason that their applications to the Commission for regular appointments were rejected and that they had put in more than 12 years of continuous service. The Commission examined the matter and informed the Government that the applications of two of those three individuals were rejected as they were not eligible for appointment to the post by recruitment by transfer and that the third one did not obtain sufficient marks at the shortlisting examination and was not therefore called for oral test; that, as the three candidates had not availed successfully the earlier opportunity open to them when the Commission advertised the post, the Commission did not find any justifiable reason to accord its concurrence for the regularisation of their temporary services in as much as temporary service alone, irrespective of the fact whether it was long or short, could not be the criterian to regularise one's services and that one should seek regular appointment only by satisfying the prescribed rules and also by proving their mettle at the oral test. It expressed its inability to accord its concurrence for the regular appointment of the three persons as Mass Education and Information Officers.

The Government, however, issued orders regularising the services of the three persons by excluding their appointments from the purview of the Commission by invoking the proviso to Article 320 (3) of the Constitution of India on the ground that they had crossed the age of 40 years, that non-regularisation of their services would lead to the termination of their temporary appointments, that it would affect their carrier and their families would be left helpless and that they had acquired rich knowledge and experience because of their past services and the taining undergone by them. The Government issued orders regularising the services of the three persons in the post of Mass Education and Information Officers, notwithstanding the Commission's views. They have thus violated the well established convention that the Commission's advice must be accepted in all cases except where matters of policy are involved or where imperative reasons exist for not accepting the Commission's advice.

(B) Non-Consultation with the Commission in regard to appointments, Rules, Regulations and Disciplinary Action.

1. In G.O. Ms. No. 757, Finance (P.C.), dated 17th July 1985, orders were issued, inter-alia, revising the method of appointment prescribed for the post of Treasury Officer, which is under the Commission's purview. The Government were requested to state the circumstances in which the Commission was not consulted before issuing the order in regard to the change in the method of appointment to the said post as required in U.O. note No. 4020/54-2, Public (Services), dated 11th September 1954, according to which the Commission should have been consulted before taking a policy decision and that it would not be sufficient to consult the Commission at the time of issuing the amendment to the rules. In reply, the Government stated that the Commission was not consulted by oversight before issuing the said orders and that the Commission would be consulted at the time of issue of amendment to the relevant rules. This is a case of violation of the Government's own instructions issued in this regard. The Commission trusts that such omission will be avoided in future.

2. The Government had in G.O. Ms. No. 114, Health and Family Welfare, dated 23rd January 1979 issued ad-hoc rules for the temporary posts of Input and Output Assistants, Punch Operators and Machine Supervisors in the Tamil Nadu Public Health Subordinate Service. The Commission, in March 1979, among others, suggested to the Government that those temporary posts might be brought within the Commission's purview with effect from 19th July 1976 and classed as 'Technical' for the purpose of direct recruitment. In March 1983, the Government proposed to bring those posts within the Commission's purview with effect from the date of issue of the orders as recommended by the Director of Public Health and Preventive Medicine instead of from 19th July 1976 and sought the Commission's concurrence. In reply, the Commission suggested that those temporary posts might at least be brought within the Commission's purview from 3rd March 1979, if no candidate had been appointed after 3rd March 1979 to those posts on regular basis. The Government in November 1983, again sought the Commission's views on their proposal to bring those temporary posts within the Commission's purview only from the date of issue of the orders. In June 1984 the Commission agreed to bring those posts within its purview from a particular date viz., 1st April 1984 so as to prevent the futrue temporary entrants to the posts from claiming right to regular appointment straightway. The Government, in December 1985, without adducing any reason stated that after careful consideration, they decided not to bring the said posts within the Commission's purview. Though it is left to the descretion of the Government to bring the posts in the Subordinate Services within the Commission's purview, in this case, the Government, after proposing to bring the temporary posts within the Commission's purview on the recommendation of the concerned Head of Department and after getting the Commission's concurrence for such proposal, have gone back on their own proposal and decided not to bring those posts within the Commission's purview. They have not also stated any grounds for dropping the proposal.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.

The Commission records its appreciation of the willing co-operation extended by various Trusts, Educational Institutions and their officers in the matter of providing suitable accommodation for the various examinations held by the Commission.

The Commission is also grateful to the examiners and expert advisers, who in spite of their personal inconvenience readily accepted the Commission's invitations and assisted it in the conduct of different examinations and selections of officers to the various posts under the State Government.

Finally, the Commission places on record its appreciation of the loyal and efficient service rendered by its staff throughout the year.
